IRELAND.

Waterford, March 20.

O Saturday last the 18th, two Men were executed here; one for Horſe-ſtealing, the other hang'd and quarter'd for the Murder of his Wife.

At the ſame Aſſizes the Dungarvan Gentlemen who were charg'd ſome time ago with ſending Men to France, moved by their Counſels for a Trial; but after many learned Arguments it was again put off, and they again admitted to a Bail of 2000 l. each, only Mr. Scudamore, whoſe Bail was reduced from 500 l. to 200 l. The King's Council were Serjeant Betteſworth and Arthur Blener Haſſet, Eſq; for the Gentlemen accuſed. Meſſrs Robins, Uſher, Nic. Naſh, Will. Naſh, Fingibbon, Wall and Coughlan.

Mrs. Anderſon's Trial for poyſoning her Husband, is put off to the next Aſſizes.

Innistilling, March 22. We have had a prodigious Storm of Snow here, the like never ſeen in the Memory of Man, in this Seaſon of the Year.

Maryborough, March 22. This Day ended the Aſſizes for this Town, when ſeven Men received Sentence of Death for Burglary and Felony, and Charles Wheeler and Stephen Dolany, to be hung in Chains for a barbarous Murder; and one Man for Horſe-ſtealing; all of them to be executed on Monday. Elizabeth Pilſworth to be hanged for ſtealing Money to the Value of thirty Pounds, out of the Houſe where ſhe lodg'd, was found to be with Child, and is to be executed when delivered. One Man to be whipped, two ordered for Tranſportation, and one burnt in the Hand.

From the Dublin Gazette, March 25.

On Tueſday laſt as two Fellows, who are Stay-makers, were going down Dawſon-ſtreet, they were met by two others who had Sticks in their Hands, one of them joſtles one of the Stay-makers and picks a Quarrel with him, and breaks his Head, the Stay-maker Collars him, and was too hard for him; and the other with his Stick, breaks the Stay-maker's Head a ſecond Time; on which the other Stay-maker attacks the other, and was likewiſe too hard for him, and beat him heartily; the Right Hon. the Earl of Antrim's ſecond Coachman ſeeing the whole Fray, ran into the Earl's Houſe, which was near where the Quarrel was, and brought out a Spit, and gave it to his Friend, who was engaged with the Stay-makers, and he ſtabbed the Stay-maker in three different Parts of the Body with the Spit, after a moſt barbarous Manner, and the ſaid Stay-maker had his Head broke in ſeveral Places; ſome ſay he was cut in eleven different Parts: The Stay-makers were one Boden, and Lynch, the Son and Journeyman of Mr. Boden in Turn-Style Alley; Lynch's Life is deſpaired, and the two Fellows have made off, but the Coachman is ſecured.

From the Dublin Votes of Parliament.

Die Lunæ, March 20. A Petition of William Wogan, in Cuſtody of the Serjeant at Arms for inſulting the Hon. Henry Southwell, Eſq; (a Member of this Houſe) expreſſing his Sorrow for his Offence, and begging Pardon of the Houſe, and praying to be diſcharged out of Cuſtody, was preſented to the Houſe and read.

And the Houſe being inform'd that the Member had received Satisfaction.

Ordered, That the ſaid William Wogan be diſcharged out of Cuſtody, paying his Fees.

Die Jovis, March 23. Captain Wynne, according to Order, reported from the Committee (appointed to take into Conſideration the Petition of Eleonor Triſſonier and Suſanna Johnſon, Widows of Officers, in behalf of themſelves and the reſt of the Officers Widows on the Iriſh Eſtabliſhment) the Matter as it appeared to them, with a Reſolution of the Committee thereupon, and he read the Report in his Place, and afterwards delivered the ſame in at the Table, where the Report was again read, and the Reſolution was read a ſecond Time, and is as follows.

Reſolved, That it is the Opinion of this Committee, that William Wogan, by procuring Perſons, who took Premiums for advancing Money to the Widows of Officers, has acted contrary to his Duty and the Truſt repoſed in him as Agent to the Widows.

And the Queſtion being put, that the Houſe do agree with the Committee in the ſaid Reſolution; it paſſed in the Negative.

Ordered, That the Report be recommitted.

Ordered, That the ſaid William Wogan do attend this Houſe.

Then came a Meſſage from his Grace the Lord Lieutenant, by Henry Cavendiſh, Eſq; Gentleman Uſher of the Black Rod, and his Grace was pleaſed to prorogue the Parliament.

On Saturday laſt arrived a Mail from Holland.

BY Letters of the 11th of Feb. O. S. from Conſtantinople, the Hopes of a Peace ſeem to be intirely vaniſhed. All the Talk is of War, and great Preparations are ſtill making for that End. They give out, that the Porte will have three conſiderable Armies this Year: The moſt numerous is to act againſt the Ruſſians, under the Command of two Seraskiers; a ſecond is to be employ'd againſt the Imperialiſts; and a third is to act under the Grand Vizier himſelf, in the Centre of the other two Armies, to be at hand to give Relief to either of them that wants it. A freſh Tax is laid upon all the Inhabitants of the Empire of what Religion ſoever, but the Chriſtians and Jews are taxed higher than the Mahometans.

They write from Petersburg, that the Count de Munich, Son to the Velt Marſhal, is appointed to go and reſide at Paris, in quality of Miniſter of the Ruſſian Court, as ſoon as the Court of France has appointed their Miniſter for Petersburg; and that the Velt Marſhal continues his Purſuit of the Crim Tartars.

Thoſe of the 15th ult O. S. from Vienna ſay, that Count Seckendorff has been again examined at his own Houſe upon ſome freſh Articles, by the Imperial Commiſſion, and that the Situation of his Affairs is ſo variouſly talked of, that there's no Certainty of what will be done with him till his Affair is determined; nor is it certain yet, whether the Sentence paſſed upon General Doxat and the Officers of the Garriſon of Niſſa will be executed, notwithſtanding the Report that he was actually beheaded.

The Retreat of the Turks from Uſitza is confirm'd with theſe Circumſtances, that they were to the Number of 12,000 Men, that they cannonaded the Fort four Days together, and that on the 5th they ſtorm'd it, but were repulſed with the Loſs of 3 or 400 Men, and after a precipitant Retreat repaſs'd the Morave.

They write from Triers, that the French Troops in thoſe Parts are to be augmented to 30,000 Men.

Letters of the 18th ult. O. S. from Dreſden ſay, that Letters are arrived there from Conſtantinople, by which the Grand Seignior and Grand Vizier ſolemnly recognize his Majeſty as King of Poland; that 'tis now determined, that the Saxon Troops in Hungary ſhall ſtay there another Campaign, and that the Prince Royal of Poland, after he has accompany'd the Queen his Siſter to Naples, will go by the Way of Piedmont to France, and from thence for England.

Thoſe of the 7th from Madrid ſay, that they have at length had Rain in divers Parts of the Kingdom, and that Don Joſeph Francis Ferdinand de Cordona, Marquis of Fuentes, &c. is dead, in the 70th Year of his Age. They add, that the Contagious Diſtemper in Mexico, has carry'd off above 200,000 Men, but begins to abate.

From the London Gazette.
